October 6 Town Hall: The La Brea Hancock, Sycamore Square, Miracle Mile, and Sixth Street Miracle Mile neighborhood groups held a town hall on October 6 called “Keeping the Neighborhood Safe in the Face of Unrest.” Convened to address concerns about potential post-election violence, the event featured a presentation by LAPD Wilshire Division Commanding Officer, Capt. Shannon Paulson.

Sixth Street Safety: Cathy Roberts reported on a meeting with Rob Fisher about the series of accidents at 6th and Mansfield. DOT is conducting speed studies, and they will present their findings at a conference call with Rob Fisher and us.

GWNC news: In November the transportation committee will be discussing 4th Street bicycle traffic.

Public comment:

Hornburg Range Rover painted over the graffiti on their construction fence.

Cathy Roberts spoke with Rob Fisher about the house at 652 S. Orange Dr. that is under construction. DBS website shows the property has been cited for abandoned construction.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:23 pm.
